The Legal Aid Foundation of Los Angeles will offer a clinic, in both English and Spanish, for students who were attending the CIT College of InfoMedical Technology when it closed on October 21, 2011. Students may be eligible for (1) reimbursement of money they paid to CIT from the California Student Tuition Recovery Fund and (2) discharge of their federal student loans. We will explain how to apply for both of these programs, and help students complete their applications.
